

We are pleased to announce that

Tim Reardon

has accepted the position of General Manager at

The Toronto Sheraton Centre

We are pleased to announce Tim Reardon as the new General Manager at the Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel starting April 1st, 2017.

Tim will be moving from his current role as General Manager of the Westin Harbour Castle Hotel, a position he has held since 2014. Tim has held progressive senior leadership roles, including General Manager at the Sheraton Gateway Hotel in Toronto International Airport and General Manager at the Le Meridien King Edward Hotel in Toronto. Tim also held the role of Director, Operations, New Build and Transitions with Starwood and Director of Operations at the Sheraton Gateway previous to that. Tim is known for strategically driving revenue and guest metrics during his tenure at each hotel.

Tim is active in the Toronto market, Executive Committee Board Member - Greater Toronto Hotel Association (GTHA), a member of Tourism Toronto, President of Skal Toronto North, Board Member of Chaines des Rotisseurs and a Mentor at George Brown College Student/Industry Mentoring Program.

On his spare time, Tim likes to stay active and so far he has participated in five Tough Mudders and seven Rides to Conquer Cancer. He has been married for nine years to his lovely wife, Bonnie. They have an adorable six-year-old daughter named, Abby. Who just happens to be the 'light of his life'.

We look forward to all that Tim will bring to his new role at the Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel. Please join me in congratulating Tim and wishing him success in his new role.

Paul Cahill, AVP, Western Canada
